

Stop no. 8 – Invertebrates

The surroundings of Porici is famous for its large scale of invertebrate animals living in the meadows and on the borders of the forests.

Butterflies : European Peacock, Red Admiral, Small Tortoiseshell, Old World Swallowtail

Beetles : Tiger beetle, Ground beetle, scorpionflies, etc.

There are also molluscs such as Burgundy snail, white-lipped snail, copse snail, etc.